

John Fryer National 50th Anniversary Celebration

- Philadelphia City Council unanimously passes proclamation declaring May 2, 2022, John Fryer Day.
- Philadelphia Historical Commission includes John Fryer Residence on its Register of Historic Places.
- Governor Tom Wolf of Pennsylvania issues John Fryer 50th Anniversary Proclamation.
- U.S. House of Representatives introduces Dr. John E. Fryer Day Resolution (H.Res. 1019).
- U.S. Senate introduces Dr. John E. Fryer Day Resolution (S.Res. 574).
- John Fryer Tribute on May 2, 2022, in front of John Fryer Historic Marker, 13th & Locust Streets, Philadelphia, in collaboration with City of Philadelphia, American Psychiatric Association (APA), Equality Forum, Historical Society and others (see alphabetical list, below).
- John Fryer display at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania includes his handwritten notes from the Homosexuality Panel at the 1972 APA Annual Meeting.
- Free Online Screening of “CURED,” a documentary about John Fryer and homosexuality as a mental illness on Monday evening, May 2.
- Presentation of John Fryer 50th Anniversary Award by the APA at its May 2022 Annual Meeting in New Orleans.
- John Fryer feature article in the May-June edition of “The Gay and Lesbian Review.”

Collaborating Organizations

- | | |
|--|--|
| ▪ American Psychiatric Association (APA) | ▪ Historical Society of Pennsylvania |
| ▪ Association of Gay and Lesbian Psychiatrists | ▪ Philadelphia Historical Commission |
| ▪ City of Philadelphia | ▪ Preservation Alliance for Greater Philadelphia |
| ▪ Commonwealth of Pennsylvania | ▪ U.S. Congressional LGBTQ+ Equality Caucus |
| | ▪ William Way Community Center |